- Claim 29, line 6, after "routing resources" insert —in the reprogrammable PLD—.

Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1 – 33 are allowed over the prior art of record. An examiner's statement of reasons for allowance is given in the following:

Claims 1 – 33 are allowed because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the following subject matter:

- A method of generating a test design for a reprogrammable PLD, the test design utilizing target routing resources of the reprogrammable PLD targeted for testing, the method comprising processing each target routing resource by setting the target routing resource as a router starting point in combination with other limitations recited in independent Claim 1 and Claim 15, respectively;
- A computer-readable storage medium comprising computer-executable code for generating a test design for a reprogrammable PLD, the test design utilizing target routing resources of the reprogrammable PLD targeted for testing, the medium comprising code for processing each target routing resource comprising code for setting the target routing resource as a router starting point in combination with other limitations recited in independent Claim 9 and Claim 24, respectively;
- A computer system for generating a test design for a reprogrammable PLD, the test design utilizing target routing resources of the reprogrammable PLD targeted for testing, the system comprising a resource processing module for processing each target routing resource comprising a first module for setting the target routing resource as a router starting point in combination with other limitations recited in independent Claim 12 and Claim 29, respectively.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
